

Twilight Dance: Recipes for Bath and Body

UPDATES – 7/16/14

Note from Tonya: I will do my best to update this sheet as things are brought to my attention. I also update the ebooks and Amazon print copy as soon as the need for change is discovered. If you have a new copy of the cookbook, you may not need these adjustments.

If you have found a discontinued ingredient or a misprint, please contact me so I can update the community as soon as possible. Thanks so much for your help in keeping this fun for everyone!

MISPRINT - p121 Sugar Scrub

Line reading:

“Heat preservative solution in Glass Custard Cup B in microwave for 45 seconds at full power to 140° F.”

Should read:

“Heat preservative solution in Glass Custard Cup B in microwave for 30 seconds at half power to 140° F.”

MISPRINT - p5 Rhassoul Clay & Lavender Soap

Line reading:

“coconut oil, fractionated”

Should read:

“coconut oil, 76<sup>o</sup>” and should be listed under “Crockpot.” Soap will still work with fractionated coconut oil, but will be very soft.

DISCONTINUED INGREDIENT Bath Bombs, Bath Salts, and Toe Ticklers

All products listing BODYFLOW...

...can substitute NATRASORB BATH STARCH in equal measure available from most primary suppliers.
